CHOCZIM, October 20. O. S.

THE Seraskier Bashaw of Bender having received Orders from the Grand Signior, to dispose every Thing for undertaking of the Siege of Oczakow as soon as possible, the 29th of last Month the Bashaw reviewed the Troops design'd for that Siege, consisting of 30,000 Men, among which are 20,000 Janissaries; the 30th of the same Month, those Troops began to file off towards Oczakow, and the rest took the same Route the following Days. The Grand Signior being willing to give Count Bonneval an Opportunity of shewing his Skill in the Art of War, his Highness has charged him with the Siege of that Town. The 4th Inst. that General arrived at Bender with a numerous Retinue, and was received under a general Discharge of the Cannon of that Place; the Bashaw [illegible] him to the Castle; the Garrison lined the Streets thro' which the Count passed, and a vast Crowd of People, by their Acclamations, proclaim'd the great Idea they have conceived of him: Since his Arrival at Bender, he has been busy in giving Orders about conveying the Artillery and Provisions to Oczakow. Amongst the Troops which are to be employed in the Siege of that Place, the Count designs to make Use of the Regiment and the Body of the Artillery Men which he has established upon the European Footing. All the Officers which are to command under him at this Siege, have received Orders to obey him punctually under the Pain of Death. That General flatters himself with the retaking Oczakow in a short Time, and depends as much upon the Ardour of the Troops, as upon their Affection and the Confidence they repose in his Capacity.

HAGUE, Nov. 11. Mr. Horatio Walpole continues to have frequent Conferences with the principal Members of this State, at which the Affair of the Spanish Depredations is not the least Topic of Discourse. The Court of Spain insists upon it, that his Catholick Majesty has a Right to demand Satisfaction of the English, for that contrary to the Tenor of the Treaties subsisting between the two Nations, they keep up in America every Year above 40 interloping Vessels from 140 to 200 Tons each, which, under Pretence of trading to the English Plantations, run along the Coasts of New-Spain, and land great Quantities of Goods there, for which they bring off Silver in Bars, or Pieces of Eight. The same Complaints are form'd against our Merchants; and it is not probable they are altogether groundless. There are People who don't stick to say, that England has not suffered so much by the Capture of 138 Ships which the Spaniards have carried to the Havanna, or any other Port of their Dominions, as it gets in one Year only from the contraband Trade in America.

Nov. 14. Advices are come hither from Vienna, that the Town of Nissa surrender'd to the Turks without making any Defence, for want, 'twas said, of Provisions and Ammunition; having obtained the same Capitulation as the Turks when they delivered up that Place to the Imperialists. The Count Seckendorff was confin'd to his House at Vienna, and likewise General Schmettau put under Arrest at Breslaw, whither he was gone. Letters from Caminieck relate, that the Congress at Nimirow was dissolved, the Turkish Plenipotentiaries having retir'd from that Place on the 10th of October, and the Imperialists and Muscovites on the 22d.

BRISTOL, Nov. 12. Our Merchants have laid aside their Design of petitioning the King; but as several Persons are arriv'd here from the Havannah, who were taken by the Spaniards on board the George, Capt. Henry Weare, of this Port, they have been dispatch'd to London, to lay that Pyratical Affair before the Board of Council.

Extract of a Letter from an English Gentleman at the Havannah to several Merchants at Bristol, dated Aug. 26. 1737.

Gentlemen,

'I make bold to trouble you with this, to make you sensible I am not negligent of embracing all Opportunities 'of Writing, more than for what good News I can acquaint 'you with. Our Affair here goes on but slowly, but am 'afraid the Spaniards will make our Vessel a Prize; for 'they stick at nothing, notwithstanding my Plea, 'That I "received what Money they found on board from the Com-"pany's Agents at Jamaica.' I acquainted you in my last 'Advices after what Manner and where we were taken; 'the same Cruizer has since taken and brought into this 'Place, the Loyal Charles, Capt. Way, and the Dispatch, 'Capt. De la Mott, both from Jamaica, bound for London, 'and they will make Prizes of them both, altho' they have 'not found any Thing contraband on board them: So Gen-'tlemen, I can't tell how Things may be at Home, whether 'Peace or War; but I am sure it is open War here on 'their Parts. I should have come away by this Opportu-'nity, were it not to wait the Issue of my Tryal, and to 'have something to satisfy the Insurers, tho' I don't know 'but at the same time I run the risque of my Liberty; for 'if a War breaks out I am doomed to Imprisonment: I 'shall take the next Opportunity that offers to come home, 'or go any where rather than stay here. I am now on 'Shore at the English Factory, which gives me a more con-'venient Opportunity of Writing than when on board.

'P. S. Since my Arrival here there have been no less 'than 8 or 900 Soldiers imported, and more expected, who 'are now going to embark on a Vessel for St. Augustine; 'so that it is time for South-Carolina and Georgia to keep a 'good Look-out.

LONDON, November 24.

Last Sunday Night at Eleven o'Clock died of a Mortification of the Bowels, Her Majesty WILHELMINA DOROTHEA CAROLINA, Queen Consort of Great-Britain, &c. aged 54 Years, 8 Months, and 20 Days. She was Daughter of John-Frederick Marquis of Brandenburg-Anspach, by Eleanor Erdmuth-Louisa, his second Wife, (Daughter to John George, Duke of Saxe-Eysenach) This most excellent Queen was born March 2, 1682,3. and was married to His Majesty at Hanover, August 22, 1705. at a Time when She was courted to marry Charles the then King of of Spain, and now Emperor of Germany. She was Crowned with his Majesty on the 11th of October, 1727. had Issue by His Majesty four Sons, and five Daughters, viz. Frederick Lewis, Prince of Wales, born January 20, 1706; Ann Princess of Orange, born October 22, 1709; the Princess Amelia Sophia, born May 30, 1711; the Princess Carolina Elizabeth, born May 30, 1713; William Augustus, Duke of Cumberland, born April 15, 1721; the Princess Mary, born Feb. 21, 1723; the Princess Louisa, born December 7, 1724; which are all living: A Prince, dead born, November 9, 1726; and George William, Duke of Glocester, born November 2, 1717, who died the 6th of February following. Her Majesty was taken ill on Wednesday the 9th Instant, after she had breakfasted at her Library in the Park.

" Her Character deserves to be the Subject of the most able Pens, and her Memory must be forever dear to every Friend of our Religion and Liberties. For the World has not at at any Time produc'd an Example of greater Distinction in the several Relations of Life, whether we consider Her Majesty as a Queen, a Wife, a Mother, a Mistress, or a Friend; of which we might produce a multitude of the most undoubted Instances, if the Sacredness of the Characters that are concerned did not make the Subject too delicate for us to undertake.

Tho' her Illness was severe and afflicting above Measure, and attended with great Pain to herself, it has been the Means of giving us the most exalted Idea of her Virtues, which enabled her to go through such a Tryal, not only with Submission to the divine Will, but with a composedness of Temper, and Magnanimity of Spirit, which amazed all that were about her. Every Interval of Ease from her Sufferings, was employed in Acts of Devotion; in giving new Proofs of Tenderness to those that were most dear to her; in shewing her kindest Regards to her Servants, and manifesting her Zeal for the Welfare of the Publick.

Her Manner of Thinking and Speaking on the many interesting Subjects that possess'd her Soul, and her whole Behaviour from the Beginning of her Illness to the fatal Moment in which she expired, was so full of Dignity and Innocence, and withal so natural and unaffected, that 'tis hard to say whether her great Abilities, and all the amiable Qualities which adorn'd her Life have done more Honour to her Character, than the Circumstances which preceeded her Death, and which we doubt not will be recorded in a better Page.

Many Particulars might be added with the strictest Truth, which would give our Readers the most lively Sense of the irreparable Loss these Kingdoms have sustained by her Death. But as this may be done hereafter, we choose at this Time to avoid any Thing that may heighten the real Concern which appears in all Ranks of People on this affecting Occasion."

A private Letter by the last Mail from Holland mentions, that it was reported there that Admiral Schryver, Commander of one of their Men of War at Curasao in the West-Indies, being appris'd of the Insults committed by the Spanish Guarde Coasts, quitted his own Ship of 50 Guns, and went on board another of 20 Guns, well mann'd, and in a small Time was attack'd by two Spanish Vessels, one of 20 Guns, the other of 10, which he took after a smart Engagement, himself being wounded, and 85 of his Men kill'd and wounded. When the Spanish Commanders were examin'd, they could produce no Commissions, but said they were fully empower'd by the Governor of Porto Rico; on which the Dutch Admiral sent to the Governor, to know if he had commission'd such Vessels, but receiving an Answer in the Negative, he immediately went on board his own Ship, called a Council of War, declared them Pyrates, and hang'd them all up.

Yesterday four Men of War were put into Commission, and are to sail to Georgia, to protect that Colony from the Insults of the Spaniards.

We hear by private Letters from Gibraltar, that thirty Mortar Pieces and 30,000 Spaniards are arriv'd at the Batteries near that Town.

A new Vault is making in King Henry the VIIth's Chapel in Westminster Abbey, by Mr. Jones the Abbey-Bricklayer, which is to be for the Use of the present Royal Family, the other two Vaults being full; and the two Princes, her late Majesty's Children, will be taken out of the other Vault, where they now are, and deposited in this with her Majesty.

'Tis talked the Corpse of her Majesty will soon be carried from St. James's to the Room in which were his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales's Robes, near the House of Lords.

We hear that a Table will be kept for the Maids of Honour belonging to her late Majesty till Christmas, and that a Year's Salary from her Majesty's Death, will be paid each of them; likewise the Sum of 3000 l. each, being the Fortune allowed at their Marriage by the Queens of England.

Letters from Spain mention, that two English Ships were lately taken by the Spaniards, one bound from Gibraltar to Algier, and the other from the Coast of Barbary to Tunis, and carried into Malaga, under Pretence of having Moors, and Moorish Effects on Board.

There was lately found, in cleaning a Fish-pond at Abington in Berkshire, belonging to Mr. Tomkins of that Town, a Tea Canister full of Guineas; but the Workmen quarreling about dividing the Money, one of them discovered it to Mr. Tomkins, who took it into his Custody; since which it appears that the abovesaid Gentleman's Father was robbed of 800 Guineas about 15 Years ago, and his Coachman committed to Abington Jail on Suspicion of having committed the Fact, from whence he made his Escape, and has never been heard of since; so that this is supposed to be the same Money.

Last Week a Cart loaded with wrought Plate was sent from Mr. Hopkins's Goldsmith in Fleet-street, and deliver'd at the Custom-House, for Edward Trelawney, Esq; Governor of Jamaica, from whence 'twas conjectur'd that his Excellency was just on his Departure, but it's now generally thought his Marriage will retard it, 'till after Christmas.

Advices from the Havanna, dated the End of August last say, that the Intention of the Spaniards to invade Carolina and Georgia was then no longer kept secret; that a Regiment was arriv'd from Old Spain, and another daily expected; and they also expected a great Body of Troops from Mexico; and that the Garrison of Augustine had been some time before considerably augmented.

PARIS, Nov. 25. A few Days before the Court left Fountainbleau, an Officer arrived there from the Marquis de Villeneuve, his Majesty's Ambassador at the Porte, with Dispatches of great Importance concerning the King's Mediation for accommodating the Difference between the Emperor and the Grand Signior. That Officer reports, that during his Stay at Constantinople, Count Bonneval took a Journey thither incognito; that he was very much considered by the Grand Signior and all the Ottoman Court, and that his Opinion was of great Weight in the Divan, The Officer adds, that the Eve of his Departure, he supped with that General, who assured him, 'That he still preserved 'a true Inclination to the Crown of France and all the 'French Nation; that he desired nothing but the Opportu-'nity of being serviceable to them in his Post; and that 'tho' he built great Hopes on the War between the Porte 'and the Emperor, he was ready to make a Sacrifice of 'them in order to leave his Majesty the Glory of putting 'an End to it, by his Mediation.' This Officer has been sent back to Constantinople with new Instructions for the Marquis de Villeneuve.

Mr. Schmerling Minister from the Emperor has had three successive Conferences with the Cardinal Fleury and M. Amelot, concerning his most Christian Majesty's Mediation, to put an End to the War between the Emperor and the Turks, upon Terms tolerably advantageous to his Imperial Majesty, by inducing the Porte to settle the Limits agreeable to the Peace of Passarowitz, by which Means all Walachia will be given up to the Emperor, and the Six Millions paid him that was stipulated for by Virtue of that Treaty, and which was never yet discharged. But these Terms are offered on Condition that his Imperial Majesty break off his Alliance with the Czarina, which as these Ministers insinuate, Necessity will justify, after an unfortunate Campaign, occasioned by the Russians finishing it too soon, whereby the Turks were enabled to enter Walachia and Transylvania, and to send a Body of Troops to raise the Siege of Widden, and retake Nissa.
